One-day seminar – fully catered

A mindful journey through the psychology of leading clinical teams, with compassion and spunk.

This full day program for senior nurses in clinical leadership roles is ideal for Clinical Nurse (Level 2 Registered Nurses through to CNC, CNS, CNF & Nurse/Midwife Educators to NUMs/MUMs).

It encompasses the psychology of caring and effective teams and the pathophysiology of compassion fatigue. Mindfulness, and the neuroscience of stress, bullying and collegial discourse will be addressed in this brave new workshop delivered by our favourite organisational culture coach – Jane Stanfield (Nurse/Midwife and change agent).

Learn from real world health care data and develop immediate strategies to re-invigorate not only your career, but those you lead.
